1.	Lee Mikel	CHA has decided to combine Office of the President and Tenant Patrol. These offices need to be separate due to privacy issues.	At the present time, CHA has no plans to consolidate these two offices.

3.	Jackie Sylvester	Tenant needs are not being met. Challenged Board to follow-thru with promises made and listen genuinely and diligently to concerns of residents.	There are many other formal venues available to the public for participation, dialogue and discussion. All major policy documents and issues undertaken by the Chicago Housing Authority are the subject of public hearings. Additional forums such as the monthly Central Advisory Council Meeting, Monthly Tenant Services Meeting, TSP Hearings, design charrettes, Townhall Meetings and Working Group meetings are also held to give residents and the public at large an opportunity to actively participate and interact with CHA senior management.
4.	Willie Fleming	Is there going to be any type of investigation by CHA to the corruption going on at Cabrini regarding Section 3 hiring practices. The Cabrini LAC holds meetings every 4 th Wednesday of the month at 6:00pm. The last meeting was held last week at the LAC office located at 1230 N. Burling. If the residents have concerns they should attend these meetings to voice their opinion. They can also contact the LAC office at 312-742-7494. Also, the Development team for Parkside hosts meetings for those individuals interested in work.
